

Kristin Walker
State Budget Director
North Carolina Office of State
Budget and Management (OSBM)

Kristin Walker is the State Budget Director of North Carolina and leads the Office of State Budget and Management (OSBM). In this role she provides management oversight for statewide budget issues, demographic and economic analysis, preparation of the Governor's budget recommendations, agency strategic planning, internal audit, and evidence-based policymaking.

She also serves on the state's Committee on Actuarial Valuation of Retired Employees' Health Benefits, Council of Internal Auditing, Economic Investment Committee, NC Federal Tax Reform Allocation Committee, and as secretary to the Council of State. She is an ex officio member of the Debt Affordability Advisory Committee and the State Health Plan Board.

Prior to her 2022 appointment as State Budget Director by Governor Roy Cooper, Kristin served as Chief Deputy Budget Director for OSBM. She joined the agency in 2017. Before joining the state budget office, Kristin was a Fiscal Analyst for the North Carolina General Assembly for more than 10 years. She also previously worked for the federal government at the National Science Foundation, managing multi-million-dollar grant programs in the social and behavioral sciences.

Kristin graduated with honors from the University of Michigan and obtained her Master of Public Policy from the Sanford School at Duke University. Kristin has served on various nonprofit boards and committees and is a sustaining member of the Junior League of Raleigh.
